

Sometimes things don't turn out the way we had planned. You try and you try and you try, but in the end, there is no keeping the situation together anymore and it is time to take the next step and get on with your life.

Family Law situations can be some of the most difficult areas of conflict, with emotions running high and financial problems taking their toll. One of the things I ask is to think past today and think about where you want and need to be five years from now. All too often, in the heat of the moment we lose our thoughts in today, when tomorrow will be here soon enough.

My hope and prayer is that you find a way to make it work and don't really need to call me.

But...

when life happens, call Dom.

Good Luck to you.
